Azza Taalab Born in Alexandria, Egypt. Master of Arts from Edinburgh University in 1981. Post-graduate Translation Studies at the University of Westminster, London. Postgraduate Interpretation course at Ecole de Traduction et d'Interprétation, Geneva.

Postgraduate Development Studies at the University of Geneva. Professional translator and interpreter servicing international and regional conferences from 1984-1989. Analyst in the National Reports team at the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development (UNCED – 1991-1993). Communications Officer at the secretariat of the Convention on Biological Diversity (1993-95). External Relations Officer at the United Nations Convention on Climate Change (1996 - Jan 1998). At present, Consultant on Development and Environment issues.

Contributed to UNCED's "Nations of the Earth Report" and to UNCED's joint CD-ROM project with the International Development Research Centre. Fund-raised and helped produce a braille version of the Convention on Biological Diversity.

"Rising Voices against Global Warming" aims to put on record the invaluable contribution of the non-governmental organizations (NGOs) currently participating in the climate change negotiations.

The book highlights the activities of the non-governmental community during the third session of the Conference of the Parties (COP 3) to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) held in December 1997, Kyoto, Japan.

It contains a preface and a foreword by key political figures and a synoptic chapter which identifies the most active NGO constituencies in the UNFCCC and summarizes their positions on the various issues of the Kyoto Protocol adopted by COP 3. The synopsis also deals with the possible role of NGOs in the implementation of the Protocol.

The analysis offered in the first part of the book is based on a selection of declarations and press releases issued by the different NGO constituencies as contained in the compilation. The book is issued in French, German, Spanish and English.

Compiled by Azza Taalab

Rising Voices against Global Warming

against

Compiled by Azza Taalab